Summer Safety Tips

Always designate an adult to watch a child! Too often when accidents happen you hear someone say, "I thought you were watching them!"

- Water Safety: Drowning is the leading cause of accidental death in young children. Parents take a CPR class and also learn the signs of drowning. Even with the right supervision, kids have a tendency to wander off. Make sure to teach children how to find a safe adult such as a police officer or a mom with kids.
- Stranger Danger:
- Burn Safety: For minor burns, run under tap water for 5-10 minutes. Use a loose, sterile dressing and keep clean with mild soap and water. The best tip for parents is to avoid letting kids play with fireworks. Even sparklers burn close to 1200 degrees F. Try glow sticks instead!
- Fireworks Safety:
